DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-46 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-46 of U.S. Patent No. 6,449,490. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other as follows:

Claims 1-20 of '490 correspond to claims 1-20 of the instant invention, except that the instant invention discloses a system versus a method, said system being the inherent physical manifestation of the method of '490. Claims 21-44 of '490 correspond to claims 21-44 of the instant invention, except that the instant invention discloses processors, which would be inherent in the transmitting station means of '490. Claims 45 and 46 of '490 correspond to claims 45 and 46 of the instant invention, except that the instant invention discloses a method versus a system, said method being the inherent steps performed by the physical manifestation of '490.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
4. I, Rathoni, Kronestedt, Mahany and Gardner discuss means to determine a best channel for transmitting in a cellular system.
